Denise H. Bedenbaugh Scholarship Guidelines
Friends of the Lexington Main Library
2018

The Friends of the Lexington Main Library is honoring the service of Denise H. Bedenbaugh by naming our scholarship after her. We are offering three $1,000 scholarships; one to a student in the Lexington High School attendance area, one to a student in the River Bluff attendance area, and one to a student in the White Knoll attendance area. Students may use these funds for their post-secondary education.

Who is eligible for this scholarship?

Any graduating senior in the Lexington High School attendance area, River Bluff High School attendance area, or White Knoll High School attendance area pursuing a post-secondary education may apply. The student must be a resident of Lexington County, South Carolina in order to be eligible.

What is the scholarship?

The Friends of Lexington Main Library will award three $1,000 scholarships to graduating seniors in the Lexington, River Bluff, and White Knoll attendance areas. This is a one-time scholarship that can be applied to tuition, books, fees, etc.

General Rules

Applicants will be judged on their character, as evidenced in letters of recommendations, initiative and leadership, as evidenced in extracurricular activities at school and in the community, essay, and need. This scholarship is issued "one time only" and is not renewable.

The Friends of Lexington Main Library Scholarship Committee shall review all applications and shall have full authority to grant the scholarship.

To Apply

Fill out the application and return it to the Guidance Department at Lexington High School, River Bluff High School, or White Knoll High School by Thursday, March 22, 2018. Guidance counselors, please return the applications to Liz Warren at the DO no later than Tuesday, March 27, 2018. We must get them before spring break in order to let schools know the recipients in early May. All applicants, including Homeschool students, can return their completed application directly to the library, no later than March 22nd, 2018, or mail it to Friends of the Lexington Main Library, PO Box 1015, Lex. SC 29071. Please postmark by Thursday, March 22, 2018.

Include:

- The completed application
- An official transcript that has been signed; your application will not be considered without the transcript.
